

Member of the Month – December 2020

David Field, MD

Undergraduate School: Spring Hill College, Mobile, AL

Medical School: The University of South Alabama

Residency: UND Bismarck Family Practice Center

Any additional training:

Current Position/Practice Location: Sanford Bismarck – 25 years

Family: Wife – Sherri (miracle she hasn't divorced me); Kids – Dan, Rob, Cathy and one stupid cat;

Grandkids – Isaak, Liam, & Dillon

Family Medicine Questions:

1. Why did you choose Family Medicine? It is the best job ever
2. Who is someone along your path that inspired you and why? My partner in Linton-Dr Henry Janssen
3. If you were not a physician, what do you think you would be doing? NO OTHER CHOICE
4. What is the best part of your current position/practice? working with my Son-- Dan
5. What makes our mission meaningful to you? We do things for the right reason in the right way—spread the word
6. What advice would you give to a young physician starting out? This is the greatest job in the world—if you let it show you

Fun Questions:

1. Where is your favorite place in the world? Watching the Vikings win the super bowl
2. If you could be an animal, which would it be? Labrador retriever
3. The last book you read? Team of teams by Gen Stanley McChrystal
4. What are you currently binge watching? none
5. What is your secret talent that no one knows about? I have very little talent
6. Which superpower would you most like to have? The flash---to get rounds and charts done
7. How many states have you visited? 42